

Governor's Award for Excellence 2010

By Rosanne Ricks, Office of Human Resources

Wednesday, 03 February 2010 07:02 - Last Updated Wednesday, 03 February 2010 07:11

Every day, state employees – ordinary people, come to work and produce amazing results through their dedication and commitment to the citizens of Utah.

The Governor's Award for Excellence is a wonderful way to recognize an individual who embodies the essence of excellence in all that they do. Awards will be given to individuals or teams who have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in the following categories:

- Humanitarianism
- Heroism
- Innovation and Efficiency
- Energy and Environment
- Leadership
- Outstanding Public Service

Nominations for the Governor's Award for Excellence are currently being accepted and must be submitted to Rosanne Ricks, Office of Human Resources, rricks@utah.gov, by Thursday, February 11, 2010.

Specific nomination and category criteria can be found on the Employee Gateway, www.employeegateway.utah.gov

, on the Home page under State News and Announcements, or on the Department of Human Resource Management website,

<http://www.dhrm.utah.gov/>

, on the My Page tab under Employee Recognition. If you have questions about the awards program that cannot be answered with the information on the website contact Rosanne Ricks, 801-538-4220 or rricks@utah.gov

.